

Year in Review: 2018 at the CSC Video Transcript

Comprehensive Service Center for People who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing, or Deaf-Blind

We serve Hawaii's individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or deaf-blind, congenital and late onset, from infancy to senior years, all communication choices, their families and professionals who work with them, for all of the Hawaiian islands.

(Short video clips)

Hawaii Sign Language by Linda Lambrecht.

Linda teaching in a class explaining that HSL came before ASL at the Deaf school.

Functional English with Paul McDonnell

Paul teaching in a class in front of a smart board explaining the meaning of a mountain peak.

Tactile Dinner & Games Fundraiser, Deaf-Blind Program

Group of people blindfolded and playing tactile bingo

Group of smiling individuals waiving their arms in joy because they all got jobs.

Hurricane Prep Information

Woman explains that more hurricane information is available on CSC's website.

Deaf & CODA Keiki Fishing with Napali

Kids shown holding a baby crab

Camp Manoa (aka Camp X-Factor 2018) Annual Youth Leadership Camp

Campers are in safety gear climbing a rope tower. They walk across a high rope with the word Courage on screen. A math youth smiles as he is pulled over the top of a tall wall with the word Teamwork on screen. A group of campers surround another camper with hugs and smiles with the word 'Ohana on screen.

Read to Your Deaf Keiko Program

Woman in black long sleeves signs "go and pick up a red strawberry" in front of the book page of a mouse smiling about to climb onto a strawberry. A woman signs bright, winter's day, in front of a book page of a zoo. A man signs "one girl sat at her desk and huffed" in front of a book page of a pouting child in school.

Kupuna Klub

Group of senior citizens: "We're going to the nearby garden center to look for a Christmas tree."

CSC Christmas party with Linda leading the group in song, "my tutu gave to me, with ukuleles"

A woman frantically stacking cups in a game with one falling and sliding off the table. A duo of girls playing at a piano.

Bloopers. Woman in front of green screen "I didn't make my script!" Another woman trying to sign but says "Will" and then "pfft" with her tongue sticking out and then laughing. Another woman in front of a blue screen throwing her head back in laughter.

CSC logo with the tagline, "There's something for everyone at the CSC!"