

I am Deaf-Blind.

Here are some tips to help us communicate better:

- Please get my attention before you start speaking.
- Speak normally. Do not exaggerate, yell, or over-enunciate.
- Please understand that our interaction may take longer than with others. I appreciate your patience.

This card was provided by the University of Hawai'i Center on Disability Studies, Comprehensive Service Center for People who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing, or Deaf-Blind, and the Hawaii & Pacific Deaf-Blind Project. For more information, please visit CSC's website at www.csc-hawaii.org. Mahalo!

My name is:

Please share information with me in the following ways:

- ☐  Speaking ☐  Interpreter ☐  Large Print ☐  Writing ☐  Digital Format

☐

Call/Text

☐

Email

The best way to communicate with me is:

Speaking

Large Print

Writing

Digital Format

Interpreter

Call/Text

Email